TAFT WOULD TEST THE PANAMA BILL

Suggests in Message Provision for Referring it to Courts

WANTS TO BE FAIR TO ALL

Pesident Favors Free Toll to American Ships—His Suggestions May be Adopted—Some Think Bill is Killed.

Washington, August 19.—President Taft closed a day of conference on the Panama Canal bill with a special message to Congress suggesting the passage of legislation which would permit American ships to travel the call toll free and which would also allow foreign nations to test the legality of this provision by suits in United States courts.

The President discussed the message with Senators and members of the House and its wording was finally decided upon at a meeting of the cabinet today. The message was read in Congress soon afterward and will be taken up tomorrow by committees of both Houses.

It was the belief here tonight that a determined effort will be made to meet the President's wishes, although some leaders, particularly in the House, were inclined to believe that the measure meant no further action in regard to the canal at the present session.

Mr. Taft explained that he was anxious to sign the present bill, but wished to assure other governments of the spirit of fairness on the part of the United States.

The President said that an Act of Congress would have the effect of abrogating any treaty previously agreed to and the discussion of the Supreme Court over the Chinese exclusion act was given authority for the statement. His suggestion to Congress for additional legislation designed to prevent any such construction as that of the Supreme Court in the Chinese case would allow foreigners to try their cause in the United States courts. It reads as follows:

"That nothing contained in the Act entitled "an act to provide for the opening, maintenance, protection and operation of the Panama Canal, deemed to repeal any provision of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, or to affect the judicial construction thereof, or in any wise to impair any rights or privileges which have been or may be acquired by any foreign nation under the treaties of the United States relative to tolls or other charges for the passcage of vessels through the Panama Canal and that when any alien whether natural, person, partnership, company or corporation considers that the charging of tolls or the enforcement of any other regulations under and pursuant to the provisions of this act violates in any way any such treashall have the right to bring an action against the United States for a redress of the injury which he considers himself to have suffered and the district courts of the United States are hereby given jurisdiction to hear and determine such cases and to decree the appropriate relief and from the decision of such district courts there shall be an appeal by either party to the action of the Supreme Court of the United States."

"This language," continued the message, "negatives absolutely any desire on the part of Congress to repeal the Hay-Pauncefote treaty or to violate its provisions by this legislation and leave open to any person who deems himself aggrieved by the provisions of the act, an opportunity to appeal to our courts.

"I think the importance of our standing before the world as anxious to give the world an opportunity to test this question in the courts is an earnest of our good faith in attempting to keep within our treaty obligations.

"After a full examination of the treaty and of the treaty which preceded it I feel confident that the exemption of the coastwise vessels of the United States free of tolls and the imposition of tolls on all vessels of nations engaged in foreign trade is not a question of the Hay-Pauncefort treaty. But distinguished lawyers in the House and Senate differ from this construction, and the Secretary of Sate has received an informal protest from the British government that the contemplated legislation is a violation of her treaty rights.

"I am sure that it is not the intention of Congress to violate the Hay-Pauncefote treaty or to enact anything inconsistent with its provisions, and that it certainly is not its purpose to repeal, by subsequent enactment, the treaty insofar as it represents the law of the land. It is of the highest importance, however, that this atitude should be made clearly known to the nations of the world and that we should avoid any justification for criticism."

The message, after being read in the House, was referred to the Interstate Commerce Commission on motion of Democratic Leader Underwood

That committee has adjourned for the session and Chairman Underwood sought to have the bill left on the Speaker's table, but the House immediately voted otherwise. "It's gone to bed, so far as the House is concerned," was Mr. Adamson's remark.

He added that he had not been able to command a quorum of his committee for the past three weeks.

There is no disposition on the part of the House leaders, so far as they would indicate tonight, to attempt to press a resolution of the character of that recomended by the President. There was an informal conference with Representative Shirley of Kentucky who talked with the President on the subject and others who have taken a prominent part in the Panama legislation in the House, and the sentiment expressed was that there would be no further legislation and that if the President vetoed the bill the whole matter would go over to the December session of Congress.

WILSON TALKS TO VOLKFEST VEREIN

Nominee Speaks at Hoboken, N. J., to German-American Organization.

SAYS THE PEOPLE CAN RULE

The Governor Speaks of Responsibility of the Government in Making This Country Attractive for for the Foreigner.

Hoboken, N. J., Aug. 19.—Governor Woodrow Wilson tasked the difficulties of outdoor campaigning here today when he addressed the annual picnic of the Platt Deutscher Volkfest Vercin, a German-American organization from the entire metropolitan district. From a high improvised balcony, the Governor spoke while bands paraded in other parts of the park with the thousands massed about the speaker. Frequently there were interruptions of applause and remarks.

"We are asking ourselves this question" said the Governor, "as we face the coming elections in November, is the open road to get what we want?"

A man in the heart of the crowd took advantage of his rhetorical flow and answered "Taft." There was a moment's silence when another voice nearer the front shouted "Wilson."

The crowd took it up and cheered. When the demonstration had subsided the Governor pointed in the direction of the man who had answered Taft and continued with a smile: "Our friend over there is perfectly welcome to use his road, but if he goes that way he will find that he is in a blind alley because there is one thing that was proved at Baltimore and that the people of the United States choose their candidates and the bosses do not."

The Governor dwelt upon the responsibility of the government in making this country attractive to the foreigner so that when he did come he would find it a "place of economic opportunity where a man may choose his own career."

"Now one of the things that makes me confident of the future," continued the Governor, "is that the men who are offering themselves to you on the ticket that I happen to be on are free men. Nobody owns them. So far as I am concerned I not only have not made a promise to any man, but no man has dared asked me to make a promise. My ears are free therefore ,to hear the counsels of my fellow citizens.

"If you people standing here want your government, you can have it and the people of the United States have made up their minds they want their own government and they are going to have it. All L ask is the privilege of taking part in taking possession in the name of the people., for when I see a great company of people like this around, who will stand up merely to hear a speech, I know that something is going to happen in the United States. I know that the people of this countr yhave determined to take possession of their affairs, in order that their own thoughts may get translated into the affairs of government, and I know by the present constitution of the great party that I belong to, that there is a way in which they can get it. Therefore, I am one of those who is entering upon this campaign with absolute confidence."

The Governor spoke of the hopes of immigrants in looking toward America as a place where they could escape "all of the things that seemed to limit them at home."

"It will be a fine day," said Governor Wilson, "when we won't have to ask ourselves whether we do offer those who come from the other side of the water the kind of country and the kind of government they think they think they are going to get. It will be a fine day when we know that every man who comes in at the port to make this his permanent home will find that liberty and freedom and justice do obtain in America. When they they find that there are big combinations of business; that there are great enterprises in this country, but that these enterprises are kept within the strict limits of the law, just as soon as that comes to the general understanding, we shall for the first time have come upon the real basis of prosperity."

The Governor motored to New York where he had an appointment with Rolla Wells, the new National Treasurer of the Democratic campaign and Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the finance committee. He will go to Trenton tomorrow where he will address a rally of the State Democratic League.

AMERICAN OUTLAW KILLED IN AFRICA

James Ward Rogers Caught by Soldiers in Depths of the Jungle

HIS LIFE STORY DRAMATIC

Was Elephant Poacher and Had Organized a Kingdom—His Pursuers Endured Hardships and Untold Dangers.

London, Aug. 19.—Hunted down by British soldiers in the depths of the jungles of Central Africa, where for years in defiance of all authority he had pursued the career of an elephant poacher and illicit ivory trader, Jas. Ward Rogers, an American, is dead. He was shot down by a little force of troops which had been sent into the wilderness in pursuit, with orders not to return without the outlaw dead or alive.

News of Rogers' death came formally today to the British Colonial Office from Captain C. V. Fox, inspector of Mongalhela province, who commanded the expedition. Although told in an official report the story revealed is one of most dramatic in colonial annals.

For years Rogers had carried on his lawless trade, which popular opinion credited with netting him a fortune. The remote regions along the Lado Enclave and Congo boundaries were the scenes of his operations. Time after time British officials of the Soudan had tried in vain to trap him. It was this defiance of years which determined the governmtnt to crush the old man.

Captain Fox's report shows that in his long operations Rogers had done more than had been dreamed of by the Colonial officers. He had established an organized administration over the wild trackless country and among the natives was a virtual if uncrowned king.

The success of the outlaw in handling his "subjects" and in the pursuit of his trade drew from Captain Fox, in his report, the tribute that Rogers work was worthy of a better cause.

Not since the explorer, Henry M. Stanley, pierced the jungles in 1871 and found Dr. Livingston, has such a tale of hardships, trials and dangers come out of Africa. Captain Fox's report in this respect resembles most nearly perhaps the tale of General Funston's dogged pursuit of Aguinaldo in the Phillipines.

For the purpose of tracking the outlaw the English commander was given a non-commissioned subordinate, carriers and mules for the transportation of supplies were part of his equipment. His instructions were plain—not to return until the outlaw was captured. With a soldier's disregard for red tape, Captain Fox in his report fails to mention dates in describing the man hunt. Apparently the denounment of the jungle drama came three months ago. The pursuers then had spent weeks plunging through the jungle that almost defied passage, Rogers cunningly leading them through the densest of swamps, forests and across deep streams. Before the outlaw was overtaken he had crossed the Nile into the Belgian Congo.

Creeping up the Uganda bank of the Nile the expedition pushed forward for six weeks before the quarry was located. Fox and his men had then worn their clothes to tatters, and their supplies were exhausted, leaving them facing starvation in the wilderness.

The last hours of the pursuit were particularly trying. The chase led over a mountain with Roger's men only a short distance in advance. As they fled the ape-like natives of the outlaw sent back taunts and jeers at their pursuers.

Dramatic in the extreme is Captain Fox's description of the death of Rogers. In the jungle into which they had descended from the mountain his party came suddenly upon a camp. An ape approached the English officer and said: "The commnnder wants you to come in. He is sick and cannot come out."

Entering the hut Captain Fox found himself in a room dimly lighted by a candle. A white man was lying on a couch and beside him sat a companion, also white. For a time there was a dead silence, Captain Fox believing he had been led into a trap. Then he asked: "Which is Mr. Rogers?" "Mr. Rogers has been shot," replied the outlaw's companion.

"Yes," interrupted Rogers "and by your men."

"Come stand right here so I can look at you," Rogers continued. His eyes were blazing and from beneath a blanket he drew a revolver and pointed it at the officer.

"I am a dying man, I guess," he said. "I didn't think they could kill old Rogers, but they got him this time.

"Still you are in Belgian territory and you stand more chance for arrest than I do."

Fearing that the revolver that menaced him might be exploded at any time, Captain Fox argued with the outlaw to gain time. Finally Rogers turned to his companion whom he addressed as "Doctor" and said. "I

District Attorney Foils Police and Schepps is Lodged in Jail

WILL TELL HIS STORY TODAY

Material Witness In Rosenthal Case To Testify Today—Strengthens Whitman's Case Against Becker and Others

New York, August 19.—Persistent efforts of the police to wrest Sam Schepps from the custody of District Attorney Whitman and his representatives during his trips from Hot Springs, Ark., have come to naught. Tonight, Schepps, one of the State's most important witnesses in the Rosenthal murder case, is a prisoner on a technical charge in the westside jail under surveillance of men from the district attorney's office who have orders to allow no one to communicate with him without credentials from Mr. Whitman himself. Tomorrow Schepps will go before the grand jury and is expected to corroborate in every essential detail the story told by his friend Jack Rose, upon which police Lieutenant Charles Becker was indicted for Rosenthal's assassination.

Schepps reached here today accompanied by District Attorney Whitman, who joined the Schepps party at Albany after a journey from his Summer home at Manchester, Vt.

How essential it seemed to Mr. Whitman that he should personally protect Schepps from New York police interference, appeared tonight when it was learned that Detective Al. Thomas, the police officer, who with Assistant District Rubin brought Schepps from Hot Springs, had received during the journey east several telegrams from Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty, ordering him to bring the prisoner to police headquarters directly upon his arrival.

Thomas, who is a police detective attached to the district attorney's office, did not answer the telegrams until he had wired to Mr. Whitman who was then in Manchester.

When the train bearing Mr. Whitman and the Schepps party arrived today at the 125th street station in New York city, five headquarters men, headed by Detective Haggerty, boarded it and demanded Schepps as their prisoner.

"I will order the instant arrest of any officer who attempts to take Schepps to police headquarters," Mr. Whitman told Haggerty and "you can present my compliments to your commissioner." Mr. Whitman explained to the detective that as District Attorney of the county he was thoroughly familiar with the evidence against Schepps as an alleged accomplice of the murder and told them that it was insufficient to arrest him on such a charge, this being the one the polce have made against him.

"Schepps has come a voluntary witness into the State on a pledge from me that he be protected and I intend to protect him," declared the District Attorney.

Schepps was arraigned on a technical charge of vagrancy.

POLITICS UP IN THE SENATE

Debate on Six Year Presidential Term Brings on Another Political Discussion—Wilson and Roosevelt Compared.

Washington, August 19.—The first attempt of the Senate to debate the Works resolution for a single six-year term for the President and Vice-President, plunged that body today into another open discussion of the political situation. Senator Cummins made the chief speech in the support of the resolution, but it was interpolated with running fire of comment from Progressives, Republicans and Democrats.

Before its conclusion, the brief debate became an issue between Senator Borah, of Iraho, Republican and Senator Williams, of Mississippi, Democrat, as to whether Colonel Roosevelt, or Governor Wilson had been bulty of greater indiscretion in use of language in their writings of recent years.

Senator Borah read from one of Governor Wilson's works to show that the Democratic candidate had favored long tenure of the Presidential office.

"The Governor has endorsed the Baltimore platform," said Senator Williams, Democrat.

"He may yield to his platform, but I doubt if he yields his judgment," said Senator Borah.

"I think the Senator will admit," retorted Senator Williams, "that Woodrow Wilson has never written more recklessly than Theodore Roosevelt."

"If the Colonel has written some things which he ought not to have written," replier Senator Borah, "he has written a great many things for which the public is indebted to him."

Senator Williams declared Governor Wilson has never said anything unkind about the men who had been Presidents of the United States since its foundation.

"I offer a good $2.50 chromo to any one," he said, "who will show me any comment made by Colonel Roosevelt of any President except Abraham Lincoln and himself, which was in any way complimentary."

Senator Williams proposed a constitutional amendment as a substitute for the Works resolution, limiting a President to two terms of four years each. He said this would be more in accord with the spirit of the founders of the constitution. He declared there had been only two men with "audacity" enough to "go outside the establisher precedent" of two terms. One was General Grant, who was rebuked by his own party,' said the Senator. "The other one is rather a recent incident," he continued. "'But I think it will not be found at all difficult to take care of him.'

The six-year term resolution split the insurgent and progressive ranks of the Republicans. Senator Cummins, Works, Borah and others advocated it while Senators Clapp, Crawford and Bristow found strong arguments against it.

The Clayton bill to amend the Federal constitution so as to provide a single Presidential term of six years was reached by the House today, but on objection by Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, the measure was sent over to the Winter session of Congress.

BUTCHERS HIS WHOLE FAMILY

Capt. Hicks Murray, A Prominent Englishman, Kills Wife and Three Children and Commits Suicide—Americans

London, August 19.—Reports, which were given scare heads in the early afternoon editions of the London newspapers, that a rich man named Mackie had murdered his wife and three children and had then committed suicide by shooting himself with a revolver, horrified the American colony here. Later the American residents were relieved when investigation disclosd that the author of the butchery was not an American, but the tragedy is one of the most revolting that has occurred in England in recent years.

Captain Hicks Murray, formerly of the Gordon Highianders, some seven or eight years ago, took as his mistress Florence Taylor, a young woman of respectable family, and two years ago he married Florence's young sister Edith.

By the Taylor woman Murray had two children and by his wife one. Mrs. Murray did not live with her husband long, but her sister remained in the house.

Representing himself as Richard Charles Mackie, an American, the former Army officer, a few weeks ago, rented a house in Eastbourne, a fashionable watering place 66 miles southwest of London, installing there the Taylor woman and their two children. Last Sunday night the legal wife and child appeared on the scene and the tragedy followed. Murray in a fit of frenzy whipped out a revolver and shot his wife and the three little ones dead. He also fired two shots at the Taylor woman, both bullets taking effect and then, after setting fire to the house, committed suicide. The charred bodies of the five persons killed were found in the ruins of the building.

The injured woman was taken to a hospital where she lies tonight in a hysterical condition. She was visited at the hospital this afternoon by another sister, who said her brother-in-law was formerly a captain of the Scots Greys and later was connected with the Territorials. He had twice suffered from sunstroke while in India, she said, and had shown signs of insanity, for a time having been confined in an asylum.

Indianapolis won from Philadelphia 18 to 9. Teams from Cincinnati, Washington, St. Louis and New York will play tomorrow.

RESULT OF PROBE INTO LAND DEALS

House Committee Submits Reports on Everglades Investigation

CAROLINA DRAINAGE PROJECT

Burden of Criticism Is Laid on Assistant Secretary Hays, of Agriculture Department—Operations in State

Washington, August 19.—The investigation of the Department of Agriculture's connection with the Florida Everglades drainage project ended today when the House of Representatives' Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Agriculture submitted to the House its findings in majority and minority reports of its members.

The conduct of Assistant Secretary Hays, of the Agriculture Department, whose relations with former drainage engineer, J. O. Wright, were the subject of especial attention by the committee, was declared in a majority report presented by Chairman Moss, Democrat, to have been not in harmony "with proper standards of official propriety, if not official rectitude." The minority report made by Representative Sloan, of Nebraska, Republican, asserted on the other hand that the "unstable" majority conclusions were "more of a charge against the mental capacity and honesty of the committee members" than against Assistant Secretary Hays.

The majority report was signed by Chairman Moss and Representative Flood, of Arkansas, and Doughton, of North Carolina, Democrats. The minority report was signed by Representative Sloan, of Nebraska, who stated that Representatives Higgins, of Connecticut, and Madden, of Illinois, approved it. All are Republicans. Many features of the Agriculture Department's work in connection with the everglades were attacked by the Democratic report, which arraigned the Department as vascillating and Engineer Wright as having been "on familiar terms with real estate promoters and speculators."

No real criticism of Secretary Wilson was contained in the majority report, the burden of criticism being laid on Assistant Secretary Hays. The minority report on the other hand, acquitted the latter of the charges that he "despised all restraint and attempted to capitalize his official position and draw quick dividends from official opportunity."

The everglades investigation arose through the charges that certain reports prepared by government engineers had been withheld from publication, with the inference that such action was in the interest of land dealers. C. G. Elliott, chief of drainage, and Assistant Engineer Moorehouse, who were brought into the controversy, were found by the committee to have made an arrangement in connection with North Carolina swamp lands that was in violation of the law, but inasmuch as there was no profit intended in it the committee declared that the men had been too severely disciplined by Agricultural Department officials.

Assistant Secretary Hays' connection with the matter arose through a private arrangement he made with J. O. Wright, former drainage engineer, for the handling of some drained land in North Carolina which did not belong to the government.

The majority report cited Wright's admissions of his familiarity with real estate promoters and of accepting development company stock and fees while engaged officially in making surveys to reclaim land. It declared that while thus engaged as a paid salesman and an interested purchaser he appeared before the North Carolina Legislature as an official of the Department of Agriculture ostensibly to advise in the framing of drainage legislation.

He later boasted, the report said, of securing the passage of a special statute there under which he was enabled to close a deal. His transactions were denounced by the majority as repugnant to a high sense of honor and integrity, which would justify dismissal if he were still in the government service. The report added that his transactions were not brought to the knowledge of his superiors of the drainage division.

The majority report cited testimony regarding frequent conferences of Assistant Secretary Hays and Engineer Wright, who has since become State Drainage Engineer of Florida, concerning the purchase and sale at a profit of the bed of Lake Mattamuskeet, N. C. Mr. Wright, the majority declared, did not seem to realize the impropriety of his own conduct. In view of his confidential relations with Mr. Hays the majority "found it difficult to escape the conviction that Mr. Hays was in full possession of the facts relative to Wright's deals and transactions when they were being negotiated," and that Hays should have condemned them rather than to have encouraged them.

There was no evidence, however, that Mr. Hays actually received any money profits out of any of these transactions. Mr. Hays' office, said

JOE JEANETTE WINS

Completely Outclasses Jeff Madden—Stopped In Second Round

New York, August 19.—Joe Jeanette, who expects to meet Jack Johnson next month, met Jeff Madden, of Boston, in a 10-round bout in Madison Square Garden tonight and so outclassed his man that the fight was stopped in the second round. Jeanette weighed 196 pounds, five pounds more than his opponent. The Boston pugilist appeared to poor advantage at the start and in the second round went to the floor three times. A short right upper cut sent him down the first time and he was so weak from this and previous blows that he practically fell down twice.

CHARLOTTE PLAYERS SOLD

C., August 19.—Pitcher George Bauswein and Catcher Malcomson, star battery of the Charlotte club, Carolina Association, were today sold to the Atlanta club, Southern League, the sale price being reported at $2,500. The players will report at once to the crackers. Both are youngsters who have been with the local club, with which they started for two years.

STRIKE NOT CALLED

Threatened Strike on Norfolk Southern Did Not Materialize

Norfolk, Va., August 19.—The trains are running as usual on the Norfolk Southern today the threatened strike to go into effect at five o'clock did not materialize the engineers and officials of the road getting together on a proposition to extend the time until the Norfolk Southern can perfect its organization, which was recently seriously affected by the resignation of President Lamb, general manager, and others.

The officials of the road pointed out to the representatives of the engineers who desire an increase in wages that it was a hardship on the road to order a strike at this time when there was no official head. The engineers agreed to leave the matter open for the present and the officials agreed to straighten up the differences at the earliest moment.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 19.—While United States Labor Commissioner Charles P. Neill, is negotiating with officials of the road to divert a strike of the engineers, motormen of the Norfolk-Southern railroad are at the posts of duty.

W. W. Cadle, representative from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said tonight the men would not be called out until the result of Commissioner Neill's efforts are known.

TAFT HAS VETO READY

President Will Likely Disapprove of Legislative Bill a Second Time

Washington, August 19.—President Taft, it is predicted tonight, will register a second veto against the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill agreed to late today in both the Senate and House.

The bill, as it was sent to the White House, provides for the abolition of the Commerce Court, but does not contain the provisions which would limit to a seven-year tenure civil service employes, to which Mr. Taft objected when he vetoed the same bill several days ago.

The President is a strong believer in the usefulness of the Commerce Court, but also disapproved of the bill because Congress has attached special legislation to one of the great supply measures designed to keep the wheels of the government in motion.

He has expressed a willingness to stay in Washington all Summer, if necessary, to back up the Commerce Court.

Dublin, Ga., Aug. 19.—Two men were killed and several injured by lightning which struck the House in which they were visiting at Lovet, near here yesterday, according to news received here today. The victims were John Purvis and James Myers. H. A. Purvis and his wife and little daughter also were badly shocked and the house was damaged by fire.

OTHER BASEBALL PLANS

Manager Stouch Wants to Bring Anderson and All-Star Team Here For Series of Five Games First Week In Sept.

While the Greenville and Spartanburg baseball teams in the Carolina Association will not be able to play here on Labor Day, as had been hoped, there is every probability that Wilmington fans will have the opportunity during the week beginning Labor Day to witness some faster games than would have been put up by these two teams.

Mr. William Struthers, Jr., an ardent fan of this city, has received a letter from Manager Thos. C. Stouch, of the Greenville team, in which he states that Greenville and Spartanburg will not be able to play here Labor Day, but that he can arrange to bring the team from Anderson, which will probably win the league pennant this season, and an all-star team picked from the other clubs in the association, for a series of five games. He asked Mr. Struthers to wire him if arrangements could be made for securing League Park and for transportation facilities to and from the grounds.

Mr. Struthers, after a conference with Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Pawer Co., immediately wired him that the grounds could be secured and that the Tidewater Power Company would furnish ample cars to carry the crowds to and from the grounds, so there seems to be no reason to doubt but that the games will be played here. In his letter Mr. Stouch suggested that the series of games be played on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th, playing a double-header on one of the days. Mr. Struthers stated yesterday that the double-header would probably be played Friday, Sept. 6th.

In his telegram to Manager Stouch Mr. Struthers stated that we would expect Mr. Stouch to bring the whole Anderson team, as now constituted, and also a picked team composed of only the best men in the other clubs, so as to insure best possible games. Anderson is now leading the league with an excellent chance of winning the pennant, and the team is regarded as one of the fastest that has ever played ball in North and South Carolina.

Opposing the Spartan aggregation would be a team composed of the star players of the other five clubs of the circuit, who by their brilliant playing would offset any lack of team work. The games would be entirely worthy of the enthusiasm of the Wilmington fans and it is certain that the fans would flock to the contest in record-breaking numbers.

Mr. Stouch's letter to Mr. Struthers was as follows,

"Spartanburg, S. C., Aug. 16, 1912.

"Mr. William J. Struthers, Jr., Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Friend.—Your valued letter of August 14th received, and in reply, I am sorry to state that it will now be impossible to play the Labor Day games at Wilmington, N. C., as all the receipts are pooled and divided equally among the six clubs in this league. I would have to get permission to transfer, and Mr. Wearn would not agree to play the games at Wilmington.

"However, I will not give up hope of playing some games in Wilmington; and I have been working on a scheme which would give the people of Wilmington a chance to see five games of good baseball. I can get the full Anderson, S. C., club, which looks like the sure winner of the pennant in this league, to come to Wilmington and play me a series of five games—my club to be composed of an all-star team, picked from all the other clubs of this league. The team I would pick would make it very interesting for the Anderson club, and would give some fine baseball. I could call my club the 'All-Star Wilmington Club' if you think the people would take it in the right way to represent Wilmington; as I would not have over three players from any one club, my idea would be to play these games in the balance of the week after Labor Day, say Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th, playing a double-header in one of these days, two games for one admission.

"I am going to ask if you will kindly see if I can get the park and car service for the above dates; and also your opinion on this matter. All the Anderson club will come on this trip, paying their own expenses, taking a chance on making a little money. I will take the responsibility of bringing the all-star team—all I want to be guaranteed is that we can get the baseball park and car service, and I will guarantee Wilmington some good games. Please wire me at my expense as soon as you receive this letter, stating park and car service arranged O. K. Arrange games so I can get busy in getting my all-star bunch together; and I can send you some cuts of the players on both teams, and some news for the papers. I certainly thank you for the interest you have taken in my behalf in this matter, and hope you will favor me with a wire to Greenville, S. C., 111 Anderson street.

"With very best wishes for your health and success, I beg to remain,

"Very cordially your friend,

"THOS. C. STOUCH,

"Manager, Greenville, S. C."

Mr. Struthers also received a telegram yesterday from Manager Chas. C. Clancy, of the Winston-Salem team, inquiring if Wilmington would offer any inducements for a series of six games between Winston, Spartanburg and Anderson, starting on the 22nd. In view of the fact that the other arrangements would require no offer of inducements, Mr. Struthers stated that he would reply that no one here felt justified in making any offer.

..Theatrical..

The dramatic, romance, comedy, travels and live current events will all be wrapped up in today's big bill at the delightful Bijou. The giant programme today at the popular joy spot of Wilmington amusement lovers will run the gamut of human emotion and will also furnish some fine information in the most attractive kind of way. All this in addition to the Bijou's solid comfort ways, and all for the tiny price of 5 cents admission afternoon and night.

In the dramatic line there is a big star in "The Little Sheriff". It tells a stirring though sweet story of the west in which a well known juvenile actor portrays the role of "The Little Sheriff." It is a virile, wholesome play.

The romantic part is headed by a superb war film, "A War Time Romance," and it is proclaimed the most exciting and the most fascinating of stories written around the great strife. The scene in the Southern home, which stands on neutral ground and which is the object of several attacks is indeed interesting, as well as graphically exciting. The story is a splendidly drawn one, and is the most elaborate of all Civil War photoplays.

The film that will carry the onlookers traveling is entitled "In Maori Land," and it furnishes vivid and excellent views of the wonderful Yellowstone Park of New Zealand. It is a great education in itself.

The current events will be served up by Pathe's latest weekly, which is a veritable animated newspaper. Scenes as near as Norfolk, Virginia, showing the sinking of the steamship Madison, of the Old Dominion Line, will be flashed on the Bijou's immense screen.

Big Week at The Grand.

The Grand Theatre, starting yesterday with a great big bill in the moveys, inaugurated another big Mid-Summer week in popular price amusement, the admission at this theatre now being only five cents or half a dime, appealing in no uncertain terms to those who have not a fortune to spend in this way. However, there is no dimunition of the bills offered daily afternoon and evening.

For today the feature films will be "Suing Susan," a Vitagraph that portrays the significance of the expression "Horrid Man." That's what they all say. She threatens to sue the man next door. He does a little suing himself. By pressing his suit he wins and now she thinks he's a dear. How it all came about is splendidly and most entertainingly told in this moving picture masterpiece.

Another feature for today is a "A Child's Remorse." This is a Biograph and it is shown that the mother's pettish nature is reflected in the child. This film teaches a very strong lesas well as young.

Besides these two there are still other features that will appeal to all at the Grand. Another high-class picture is presented and the always delightfully cool and pleasant auditorium makes the permances doubly refreshing.

DISMISS INDICTMENT.

Motion Will be Argued for Clarence S. Darrow Today.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 19.—A motion to dismiss the indictment of Clarence S. Darrow on the charge of having bribed Robert F. Bain, a McNamara juror will be heard by Judge J. H. Hutton tomorrow. The motion was made today when Darrow appeared this morning. Several grounds were advanced including the facts that there had been no trial with the 60 day limit after indictment as provided by statute and the defendant had been once placed in jeopardy on the same charge. It was argued that Darrow had been tried on the Bain accusation as a part of the general consipiracy charge against him and had been acquitted and that the prosecution had no evidence against Darrow which had not been introduced in the recent trial. Judge Hutton declared there was some foundation for the request, but he wished to look further into the authorities cited.

Pudge Hutton decided he would not preside at a second trial. "It would be inappropriate," he said, "as I have a decided opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant. Most of the judges in the county share my own mental attitude and it probably would be necessary to call upon the Governor to designate some judge to try the case."

THE KANSAS PRIMARY.

Roosevelt Electors Have Majority of 34,000—Stubbs Defeats Curtis.

Topeka, Kas., Aug. 19.—Roosevelt Presidential electors were chosen by the Republicans in the recent primary in Kansas by a plurality of 34,000 over the Taft electors, according to official figures given out by the Secretary of State today.

Although W. R. Stubbs won the Republican nomination for United States Senator, Charles Curtis, the present Senator, received a popular majority of1,216 over him.

The nomination is decided by the legislative districts and while the district count has not been offically comlilled, the Curtis forces concede Stubbs nomination.

Hugh Farrelly, of Chanute, Democrat, for United States Senator has a popular majority of 1,690 over W. H. Thimpson, his nearest competitor, but Thompson has the Democratic nomination with several legislative districts to spare.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Charlotte Club Chartered—No Strike Of Norfolk Southern Engineers —Adjutant Generalship—Jr. O. U. A. M. Assemble

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 19.—The River Outing Co., of Charlotte, was chartered today for the purpose of maintaining a club house and boats on the Catawba river. The capital is $25,000 authorized and $300 subscribed by E. J. James, J. E. Solomon and J. J. Bran.

Sam Jones, colored, was committed to the city prison last night charged with criminal assault on a negro woman. He knocked his victim down and choked her in the accomplishment of his purpose.

There was gratification here this morning when it developed that the strike of the locomotive engineers on the Norfolk Southern scheduled for inauguration this morning at 5 o'clock did not materialize and the authoritative statement was made that the railroad officials and the engineers had reached an agreement that averted a strike at least for the present.

Raleigh will entertain the State Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, this week, beginning Tuesday evening with a public session in the auditorium. They will be here for three days, this being the twenty-second annaul session. There are 27,000 Juniors in North Carolina and over 300,000 in the United States and the order is aggressive and devoted to all that is best in fraternal and patriotic sentiment and usefulness. The meeting Tuesday night will be a welcome service presided over by W. A. Cooper, and the principal address is to be delivered by Attorney General T. W. Bickett. Hon. B. R. Lacy, State treasurer, and Mayor James I. Johnson will be other notable local speakers. The response to the address of welcome is to be by Mr. J. T. Hartsall, of Concord, Past State Councillor.

Major J. J. Bernard, of this city, who is being urged for the Adjutant Generalship to succeed the late Gen. Roy L. Leinster, says he is not an active for the place. He is a political friend of Governor Kitchin and his friends believe that if the place is tendered him by the Governor he will take it. He believes that it is an office the filling of which is peculiarly personal to the Governor and that the chief executive should be permitted to exercise his own inclinations in the matter of selection. One of the most talked of possibilities for the appointment is Gen. Francis A. Macon, of Henderson, quartermaster general. In fact, indications are that more pressure is being brought to bear on the Governor in the interest of General Macon than in the interest of any other officer of the guard in line for the appointment. Numbers of the guard officers are still hoping that it will be possible for Governor Kitchin and Hon. Locke Craig, next Governor, to come to an understanding in the interest of the guard so that an appointment can be made that will be permanent so far as both the remainder of the Kitchin administration and the four years of the incoming Craig administration are concerned. Sidney Minor, of Durham, and Col. Z. P. Smith, of Fayetteville, are also being mentioned for the adjutant generalship. It is believed that it will be some little time yet before the Governor makes any announcement of an appointment.

Winston Hunter and Julian White, well-known young men of this city, were in a friendly scuffle in the tiled entrance to King's wholesale drug store this evening when Hunter slipped and fell, striking his head against a marble pilaster and sustaining injuries that narrowly missed being fatal. There is an ugly cut and a slight fracture of the skull on the left side. It is thought he will recover without permanent injury.

BIG LUMBER FIRE.

Dennis-Simons Company Suffers Big Loss at Jamesville, N. C.

Jamesville, N. C., Aug. 19.—The Dennis-Simmons Lumber Company sustained a loss of probably between $20,000 or $40,000 above insurance when fire was discovered in its plant here about 3 o'clock and destroyed the saw-mill plant, shingle-mill and boiler house. The part of the plant desrtyoed is worth about $75,000 and insurance to amount of $40,000 was carried.

The plant is one of the largest of the company's extensive business and includes dry kilns, store, dry sheds, and sawing sheds. These were not consumed.

The entire plant is valued at $125,000. Capt. Tilghman went to Jamesville on the early train today.

PANAMA CANAL BILL

President of Rivers and Harbors Congress Says It Is Ideal

Washington, D. C., August 19.—The unexpected early agreement reached by the conferees of the two Houses on the Panama Canal bill, in which agreement the House conferees most generally prevailed in their contentions over the Senate conferees, clarifies the Panama situation very materially and eliminates another stumbling block in the way of early adjournment. What was expected to be a hard nut to crack, the opposition of the transcontinental railroads to certain features of the bill as amended in the Senate, proved easier of solution than expected, the representatives of the railroads contenting themselves with outspoken denunciation of those sections which will keep railroad-owned vessels out of the canal.

Senator-elect Joseph E. Ransdell, president of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which body has taken the liveliest possible interest in the bill as a champion of free tolls for coastwise vessels, said today in praise of the legislation accomplished:

"The country is to be heartily congratulated upon the passage of the Panama Canal bill. In my judgment it is as great a piece of constructive legislation as has been enacted in the last quarter century. It breathes a spirit of staunch Americanism that is truly refreshing. It is original, bold and genuinely constructive.

"The provision for free tolls of coastwise commerce is of the greatest importance, and, in my judgment, will be productive of vast benefit to the commerce of the entire union.

"The provision permitting American registry of foreign built ships owned by Americans, and allowing our builders to import free of duty material for ship building, is the greatest step forward in fifty years toward the re-establishment of the American merchant marine. It will do wonders in placing our flag upon the high seas, and, unless I am greatly mistaken, the criticism made by all travelers—that an American flag is rarely seen in the ports of the world—can no longer be uttered.

"The prohibition against railroad ownership of boats operated through the canal, and elsewhere (which means any watercourse in the union), is the most advanced step ever taken to protect waterways from unfair rail competition. It will greatly promote waterborne commerce, and give the nation the benefit of the cheapest transportation agency known to man.

"I am especially pleased as a representative of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress with this legislation, because we have urged it in the strongest possible manner, and have done our utmost to crystalize sentiment in its favor."

KILLING IN SAMPSON

Bad Negro Shot Down In Lumber Camp—Other Dunn News

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., August 19.—A bad negro ran amuck in the Tilghman Lumber Co.'s logging camp, about ten miles from town in Sampson county, last Thursday and began shooting up the camp. He was ordered to stop and leave the premises by the woods boss, Mr. Horner, and was given a pass on the logging train. Mr. Horner came back later and found the negro still on the premises and ordered him to leave again. The negro drew his gun but before he could shoot Mr. Horner drew his and killed the negro instantly. The coroner investigated the case, a jury was empanelled and Mr. Horner was exonerated on the ground of self-defense. The negro had made threats to get Mr. Horner before he left and these threats had been communicated to him.

Carlyle Bain, a young man who drives for one of the livery stables here, was seriously injured Friday by a large horse he was trying to ride, falling backwards on him. Bain was on the horse which reared up and fell backwards crushing him in the breast and stomach with the saddle. It is reported this morning that while young Bain is very seriously injured, he has a chance to live.

Mrs. Erasmus Lee, widow of Erasmus Lee, died Saturday night at Falcon, where she had gone to attend the camp meeting. The interment took place yesterday afternoon at Greenwood cemetery. Mrs. Lee is survived by two sons and five daughters and perhaps the largest family circle of almost any person in the county. She is a relative of the Lees, Allens and Warrens, of Harnett, Sampson, Cumberland and Johnston. She is a large real estate owner, having large farming interests and owning some of the most valuable town property in Dunn.

Jenkins, of Siler City, and Irvin B. Tucker, of Whiteville, charging that false reports were given out concerning the number of members present at the meeting of the State Republican Committee, that forgery was inserted in the Tucker amendment of the Mott resolution and that the Mott resolution was not unanimously adopted by what he charges was not a majority of the committee. He calls all Republicans to meet in Mecklenburg and fight for their liberty and rights.

LENOIR COURT CONVENES.

Judge Carter Has Busy Week—Wind and Electrical Storms—News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 19.—Lenoir county Superior Court convened here today for a one week's criminal term. Judge Carter, of Asheville, is presiding. Nearly a hundred cases are on the docket, including several important ones, among the number being the Davis embezzlement case, from LaGrange, the Charlie Randolph homicide case, and the charges against Charlie Parker for burglary and housebreaking. The many minor cases include several for assault with deadly weapon, one or two of which are of more than ordinary interest, and a number for violation of the prohibition law. The term will be one of the busiest of the local court in several years.

Attorney-General T. W. Bickett has accepted the invitation of Chairman Cowper, of the County Democratic executive committe, to address the voters of Lenoir county in Kinston. Mr. Bickett wil probably be heard in the Courthouse here on September 7th.

Reports from the outlying country of damage from the severe wind and electrical storms in the past four days, are that the damage was not excessive in any community and that crops were benefitted by the rains, which were from a half inch to an inch and a quarter at each precipitation. In Kinston the only damage was to wires and poles. Two lighting poles were blown down in East Kinston, and the entire line force of the city system were worked during a gale to repair this trouble to prevent a term of darkness after nightfall; and in several places transformers were put out of commission. At Strabone lightning destroyed a deal of stacked fodder which was ignited by a bolt during a severe storm, and at Hookerton two fine horses, the property of Slover Lane and son, were killed in a barn by lightning.

Brick are being hauled to the site of the new $40,000 Christian church which is to be erected here, on Gordon street near Queen. Work on the excavation for the edifice has been in progress for several weeks. The building is expected to be ready for occupancy by the end of the year.

SCROFULOUS TROUBLES

No truth is more forcibly manifested in physical life than the old saying "like begets like;" for just as the offspring of healthy ancestry are blessed with pure, rich blood insuring good health, so the children of blood-tainted parentage inherit a polluted circulation which fosters a chain of scrofulous troubles. The usual sign of a scrofulous inheritance are swollen glands about the neck, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, sores and ulcers and general poor health. These symptoms are most often manifested in early life, though sometimes maturity is reached before the trouble breaks out. Treatment should be commenced at the first indication of Scrofula for it may get beyond control if allowed to run unchecked. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula. It renovates the circulation and drives out all scrofulous matter and deposits. S. S. S. goes to the bottom of the trouble and removes the cause and cures the disease. Then it supplies the weak, blood with healthful properties. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. Book on the blood and medical advice free.

The fact that people get tired of Legislatures before they finish their work shows that they do not think much of what the average legislature does.

It is always better to investigate where there is a little smoke. People who have clean skirts will meet an investigation half way and welcome it open arms.

A Chicago professor asserts that he can prove that the Bible does not prevent modern women from using their tongues. Even if it doesn't, what's the use of letting them find out that the Bible is on heir side?

A Massachusetts Congressman gave up his honeymoon trip to Europe in order to be at his post in Washington. Probably he was afraid the Democrats might tinker with the tariff of the detriment of Massachusetts.

What has come of all the reforms and all the reformers who have been reforming the politics of the country for the last quarter of a century? That is as far back as we are willing to admit that we can exercise our memory.

Anyhow, why did Taft let Great Britain get away with his administration in negotiating the Panama Canal treaty? If the protective tariff had been involved, the very strong probability is that it would haxe been carefully guarded.

Congressman Tom Hardwick declares that Tom Watson bolts every primary election that does not turn out to suit him. Well, if Tom were not permited to bolt he would not take part in a primary. Bolting is all there is in it for Tom.

The crooked police officials in New York are trying to put the blame on eachother. In that respect big crooks do not differ from the small fry in the business. The truth is a grafter is a piker to begin with and he shows it as soon as he is caught.

A newspaper correspondent at Beverly writes: "Hours spent every day on the golf links are making the President hard as flint." That is a sure sign that the President will make a dent in the celling when he hits it on the 5th of November.

Have you learned yet to appreciate the calm and clear manner in which Woodrow Wilson speaks upon the questions of the day? Any man can understand what he says, and there are no ifs and ands by means of which he can trim, hedge and sidestep when the occasion suits.

Senator LaFollette continues to be the great question mark of the campaign The questions which he asks of the Third Termer remain unanswered. How can a candidate "stand at Armagaddon" while dodging the questions fired point blank at him by an anxious inquirer of the standing of the Wisconsin Senator?

Colonel Roosevelt opened his campaign in Massachusetts with a hallelujah pace. The crowd sang hymns and cheered, entirely overloking the fact that the Colonel is depending more upon the $100 notes of George W. Perkins to help out his cause with dollars than he is upon the discordant notes of the crowd which was doing the singing. We refuse to see much of an evangelist in a candidate who clings to the idea that it is moral to tax the farmers for the benefit of Perkins' Harvester Trust and to continue the standpat policy of levying tribute on the masses for the billion dollar Steel Trust which was able to pay J. Pierpont Morgan a fee of $62,000,000 for financing it.

PARTY REGULARITY

Colonel W. S. Pearson, of Charlotte, leader of the Bull Moose party, is belaboring Republican State Chairman Morehead and the Republican State executive committee for reading the Bull Moose followers out of the party. They did so in the adoption of a resolution when the committee met at Greensboro and called the Republican State Convention to meet at Charlotte, September 4th. Colonel Pearson, who was a former Republican, has within the past few days, communicated with Republicans, former Republicans, wavering Republicans and Bull Moosers throughout the State, making a huge kick against the action of the State Committee. He charges fraud and forgery on the part of some member or members of the committee for amending the resolution after it had been adopted.

The Hon. I. B. Tucker, of Whiteville, introduced the resolution in dispute, but he has informed Colonel Pearson that somebody "doctored" the resolution after it had been adopted, by inserting the word "national" in it. That, Mr. Tucker says, entirely changes the meaning of the resolution. In other words, it bars from the State convention all men who do not pledge themselves to support the State, "National" and county Republican ticket. Thus the State committee or somebody on it has made Bull Moosers ineligible to seats in the State Republican convention.

We do not see what great difference there would be if "national" were left out of the resolution. It was intended to call a State Republican convention and hence it must be taken for granted that Bull Moosers and Democrats are not eligible to seats. Otherwise the committee would have called a Republican, Bull Moose, Democratic convention. Logically, the Bull Moosers have ruled themselves out of the regular Republican convention or organization as effectually as did the Palmer and Buckner Democrats when they abandoned the regular party and its nominee. It would have been absurd for a member of the Palmer and Buckner party to have claimed a seat in a "regular convention without renouncing allegiance to all other parties. When a man attends a party convention it carries with it the assumption of allegiance, and if he were to attend with any other motive he would be a "wolf in sheep's clothing."

On a question of party discipline, a Republican is barred, and it requires no formal resolution to fix his status. However, former Republicans who now belong to the Progressive party or who propose to support its nominee are insisting that they can attend the Republican State convention. If they are entitled to that privilege, Democrats who are going to vote for either Taft or Roosevelt could as well insist upon a seat in a regular Democratic convention. If such a thing were permitted some men would be in good standing in two party conventions at any time.

Such a thing is too absurd, for Colonel Pearson to be making any contention to the contrary. The fact is, former Republicans, still hankering after the old flesh pots, are loth to consider themselves members of any other party, and when they realize that by supporting Roosevelt they are no longer Republicans in good standing, they will be pretty apt to fall back in line with the old party. The Charlotte Observer has the correct view of it when it remarks:

"It was as The Observer had anticipated. At the crucial moment, when it came to the actual severance of the ties that bound them to the old Republican party, there was halting on part of some of the North Carolina Republicans, and open revolt on part of others. It will be found all over the State that many who had been carried away by the Roosevelt enthusiasm, will take a second thought when they come to a serious consideration of what it actually means—the desertion of a party to which they had given the allegiance of a life-time and the renunciation of its doctrines for a new party and a new faith. Some of them, in fact, will find it a pretty hard thing to do. While the new party will have a strong following, the indications point to a field day for compromise. We are expecting no Woodrow Wilson recruits—to count on that would be to make a false calculation—but quite a respectable element of the dissatisfied Republicans will find a way to be Republicans still."

It finally will dawn upon Colonel Pearson and his Bull Moosers that the Republican and the Progressive parties are too distinct party organizations and that a man cannot belong to both and get off at it. Logically, therefore, a Progressive party man who is pledged to vote for Roosevelt can no more attend a Republican convention than a Republican pledged to vote for Taft can attend a Progressive party convention. We, too, have predicted that when Republicans realize that voting for Roosevelt severs their Republican allegiance they will have cold feet on standing at Armageddon.

SOME OF BRYAN'S STOLEN CLOTHES.

Senator LaFollette, who was flimflammed out of the Progressive leadership by Colonel Roosevelt, is sore over the fact that after Roosevelt could not steal the Republican nomination he swiped progressivism and delivered the goods to the Progressive Party.

The Senator contends, and will continue to contend, however, that progressivism belongs to the Republican party and not to Roosevelt and his party. He says:

"In no partisan spirit I repeat that the progressive movement began within the Republican party. It is a distinctly Republican movement, and upon this fact and recent Republican history I appeal to progressive Republicans everywhere to maintain their organization within the Republican party. To maintain such an organization blind allegiance to every party nomination and to every party declaration is not essential."

The Senator is wrong in the concrete and right in the abstract. In the concrete, progressivism began in the Democratic party, and originally was known as Colonel Bryan's clothes. However, Colonel Roosevelt fell overboard, and having nothing but a barrel to wear around in the political family, he abstracted Colonel Bryan's clothes. Later on these same clothes began to be worn by Senator LaFollette and other Republicans and now they are fighting over the abstracted clothes of the Nebraskan. It must be admitted, however, that Colonel Roosevelt has so patched them that Colonel Bryan would prefer to wear a barrel than to dress up in any such duds. Senator LaFollette ought to be perfectly willing for Roosevelt to have all those clothes in their present potchpotch shape.

Nevertheless, when it comes to speaking in the abstract, Senator LaFollette is right. Real progressivism, minus the Roosevelt patches, "began within the Republican party" and "was a distinctly Republican movement." So far as that goes, the best evidence of the absolute truth of the Senator's allegations is that Roosevelt himself, while a Republican, purloined the progressive leadership from LaFollette, Republican, and made his fight in a National Republican convention for the Presidential nomination.

The whole thing was Republican up to the date that the convention nominated Taft and repudiated progressivism along with Roosevelt. Therefore, as the logician would say, progressivism is no longer Republican, inasmuch as it was repudiated by the National Republican convention. In summing up, as the lawyer would say, progressive ideas, as first originated, remain the stolen clothes of Colonel Bryan. Possession, however, is nine points of the law, so Colonel Rosevelt, being at present in possession, and laboring under the delusion that they are his, has the best case in court. It is believed, however, that the Colonel only wears Bryan's clothes on spectacular occasions. Nobody seriously believes that he will ever sufficiently make use of them as to wear them threadbare. They are intended for exhibition on purposes in the Progressive Party side-show.

DOUBLE OPPORTUNITY FOR WILMINGTON

Wilmington has two fine opportunities to get in the limelight in a practical way that will demonstrate her resources and advantages. In the first place, the Atlantic Coast Line is going to give all this trucking and agricultural region an exceptionally good opportunity for an exhibit at Western and Northern points. A specialty will be made of farm products, vegetables and fruits and they are now being installed in a specially arranged car for exhibition at Western fairs. This exhibit will be in one of the Coast Line's new steel-frame express cars, and it will be made as attractive as growers can make it. It depends upon them to make a good showing by placing the Coast Line in possession of as fine a line of products as can be gotten together. The exhibits and also the "Nation's Garden Spot" will be advertised in Western papers as well as by attractive booklets and bulletins. If our people appreciate this magnificent opportunity to attract attention to the unexcelled agricultural resources of this portion of the "Nation's Garden Spot," they should at once communicate with Mr. E. N. Clark, agricultural and immigration agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, at Wilmington. The car will leave Wilmington on next Tuesday, August 27. It will have an extensive itinerary and will be on the rounds all Fall.

Wilmington's other great opportunity to attract attention as well as to accomplish a purpose is to have a good delegation at the annual convention of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association at New London, Conn., next month. The intra-coastal waterway will receive close attention at that convention, and Wilmington is specially interested in that project at this time. The interest of the association in that project is in a general way, but Wilmington's is special for the reason that we want the official route changed so that the canal can come directly by the wharves of Wilmington. Our delegates may be able to commit the association to the Wilmington route, hence it is highly important that we should not miss the conspicuous opportunity our port will have at New London.

A WILMINGTON PRODUCT

Though not "native and to the manner born," Wilmington feels such an interest in George Brunson, of the Greenville Daily News, that it feels perfectly justified in calling him one of her very own. It was here that George began his career as a member of the Fourth Estate and it was right in Wilmington that he had the good judgment to claim as his helpmeet one of this city's most charming daughters.

All of which is preliminary to saying that Wilmington feels peculiar pleasure in noting from the current number of the "Fourth Estate," a high-class journal published in New York and devoted to newspapers and newspaper men, that Mr. Brunson has again been unanimously elected treasurer of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association, one of the largest and most influential organizations of newspaper men in the South. The "Fourth Estate" prints a large double column likeness of Mr. Brunson and gives this brief sketch of his career:

"George W. Brunson, Jr., publisher of the Greenville, (S. C.) Daily News, commenced his newspaper career after finishing his course at the University of Georgia as reporter on the Athens (Ga.) Banner. For six years he was connected with the reporting and editorial staffs of the Wilmington (N. C.) Messenger, Star and Dispatch and later was editor of the Charlotte (N. C.) News.

"Afterwards he was a special staff reporter on the Norfolk (Va.) Dispatch and also did work on the Norfolk Landmark. The Otologocal Congress is mainly concerned in the suppression of unnecessary noise. We fear personal affront towards that Congress will be taken by those running the third term campaign.

Big Business ought to quit viewing with alarm questions simply involving the public good, including that of Big Business. It strikes us that the business interests of the country ought to be satisfied with what conserves the public interest. This is 1912, and it is time to let up on making a fight for special interests. No interest ought to expect favors that place other interests at a disadvantage.

The fact that a burglar, pickpocket and yeggman was elected on the reform ticket in Philadelphia, proves that, even though a party may claim to represent all the virtue in the country, there is nothing to prevent a crook from wading right up to the front to raise the tune for the battle hymn. It is to men and not so much the parties that we must look for a safe, sane and honest politics. Pretentions and fair promises do not mean a blasted thing, for the fellow who wants to sell a gold brick first of all creates the impression that he is one of the elect in possession of the real goods.

CURRENT COMMENT.

If the people think that the great corporations should not stand the burden of the expense for a Presidential campaign, then they should not have to be urged to come across and furnish the money themselves. This State should easily furnish $10,000 to the campaign fund of Mr. Wilson.—Durham Herald (Ind.)

The Republicans hold their State convention September 4, that is they have called it to meet at that time, but whether there will be enough of them to hold a convention remains to be seen. The call expressly shuts out the Roosevelt people and these latter are greatly in the majority. They have been muttering a great deal and threatening to capture the convention, and make the regular Republican convention a Roosevelt convention. But at the present time it seems that they will hold a convention of their own, though enough of them may go to the regular convention to cause some annoyance. It looks now as if there would be three sets of electors and threee State tickets to say nothing of the prohibitionists and the socialists.—Raleigh Times.

We take it that there will be no objection to the personnel of the advisory committee appointed by State Chairman Webb. It is headed by ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis, who has been publicly proclaimed by Governor Kitchin as a Kitchin supporter, and whose presence alone is a guarantee of clean Democratic work. Then Mr. Josephus Daniels has been somewhat of a State Democratic idol and may be said to be above suspicion. General Julian S. Carr will be free from aspersion. Dortch and Woodward will easily pass muster, but we shall expect to see shafts hurled at Varner. It was a graceful thing in Mr. Webb to call Clyde R. Hoey to his consultation table. The committee, as a whole, is composed of good and conscientious men, who will do their duty to the party regardless of personal preferences.—Charlotte Observer.

Chairman Moorehead thus concludes a letter to a zealous Taft supporter: "Keep at it along your present lines and I firmly believe reason will return to those Republicans who will decline to yield their party and its principles to a temporary mental displeasure, adroitly worked upon by either selfish or disappointed political malcontents." All the sinister forces behind the Chicago steal are confident that the "mental displeasure" evidenced by some hundreds of thousands of Republicans, who have been supercilious enough to object to theft and forgery and kindred diversions that have the advantage of regularity, will prove "temporary" or fleeting Mr. Morehead is naturally annoyed, when one may observe indications that, in this as well as in other States, the "mental displeasure" promises to prove a long drawn out emotion. It is now time to usher in an era of good feeling, with the incidental re-election of Mr. Morehead as chairman. Chairman Morehead naturally depreciates the continued activity of "disappointed political mal-contents." Disappointed people are apt to be discontented, and discontented persons may almost invariably be classified with perfect safety as mal-contents. Mr. Morehead is always logical, rather than tautological.—Greensboro News (Ind.)

The Citizen does not contend to sit as umpire or judge in the present split in the local Republican ranks. As it views yesterday's action of the Roosevelt branch, the issues are clearly cut and it will not be necessary for the Roosevelt followers to horn their way uninvited into the State convention of "national Republicans" at Charlotte September 4th. We gather that there will be two tickets, in addition to the Democratic State, one the old line, "regular" Republican ticket and the other "progressive" Republican. It is probable that in the course of time the "progressive" end of it will stand alone without the "Republican" adornment. All of which brings up the reflection that a once great party is now marching on to nowhere, hopelessly divided because of one man's ambition. We hold that there was no new issue injected into national politics by Theodore Roosevelt; the principles of the Republican "progressive" creed had been clearly outlined and defined by Senator LaFollette and his followers. The Republicans objecting to "standpat" principles could easily have followed the Wisconsin Senator who was headed for a certain destination until the Bull Moose stole up on the rear and appropriated a creed and doctrine that were engendered in other brains. —Asheville Citizen, Aug. 18th.

FACTORY GIRL GIVES UP

Too Sick to Work—Doctor Advised Operation. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—"I run a sewing machine in a large factory and got all run down. I had to give up work for I could not stand the pains in my back. The doctor said I needed an operation for female trouble but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me more than the doctors did. I hope that every one who is suffering will get the Compound. My pains, nervousness and backache are gone and I have gained five pounds. I owe my thanks to your medicine for it is the working girls friend, and all women who suffer should write to you for special advice."—Miss TILLIE PLENZIG, 3 Jay St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

When a remedy has lived for over thirty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their very lives to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

We challenge anyone to show any other one remedy for a special class of disease which has attained such an enormous demand and maintained it for so many years as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence

INSPECTED LOCAL STREETS

Mayor and Street Commissioner of Greensboro Came Down to Post Themselves on Merits of Various Paving Materials.

For the purpose of inspecting Wilmington's improved streets, and posting hemselves as to the relative merits of the different paving materials in use here, Mayor Thos. J. Murphy, of Greensboro, and Capt. J. G. Foushee, Commissioner of Streets of that city, made a trip over the local thoroughfares in an automobile yesterday morning, accompanied by Councilman Parker Quince Moore, in charge of the Departmen of Streets and Wharves here.

Greensboro is soon to let contracts for considerable street improvements, and it was the idea of thoroughly posting themselves on the adaptability and practicibility of the different materials that the two officials visited Wilmington. They selected ths city because almost all the modern forms of paving are in use on the streets here, the different forms of paving taking a wide range.

Mayor Murphy and Capt. Foushee came down Saturday night, spending Sunday at the Seashore Hotel, at Wrightsville Beach. Yesterday morning they came to the city and met Councilman Moore, who secured an automobile in which the party made the trip over all the streets that have been permanently improved in Wilmington. It required an hour and a half to make the trip and the visiting officials were very enthusiastic over the fine streets here. They spoke very highly of the work of Council and Councilman Moore, and declared that the streets would be of untold benefit to the city. They admired all the different pavings, but were especially impressed with the asphalt block and vitrified brick combination on Front street, the city's main thoroughfare, and the bithullthic paving on Third and Market streets.

Councilman Moore answered many questions as to the work that had been done here and as to the satisfaction the different materials are giving.

After their trip of inspection Mayor Murphy and Captain Foushee went back to Wrightsville Beach, where they spent the afternoon, returning to the city in the evening and taking the 7 o'clock train for their home.

It will be of interest to many to learn that Mayor Murphy is a former resident of Wilmington. He was born at Tomahawk, Sampson county, and spent his boyhood there, later coming to Wilmington, where he was educated. He left here about 20 or 25 years ago, and has made Greensboro his home for a number of years. He is pleasantly remember here by many who knew him when he was a young man, and they welcomed the opportunity of greeting him on his brief visit.

INAUGURATES NEW PLAN.

Foster Agency Will Sell Houses and Lots in New Development.

The D. R. Foster & Co., real estate agency, in developing the block bounded by Castle, Queen, 16th and 17th streets, has inaugurated a departure from the usual methods of handling outlying property, by letting contracts for the erection of from 15 to 20 houses, part of which are now under construction. The property will not be placed on sale until the houses are completed, and the houses and lots will be sold, instead of the lots only, as is the usual custom.

Work upon a number of the houses has already been begun. Each house will be a five-room structure and they will cst on an average of about $1,000 each. All will be of uniform design and construction, and the majority of them will face on Castle street.

It is believed that the new plan of the Foster agency, of building the house and then selling building and lot to a customer on easy and convenient terms, will meet with an instanteous and decided success. The new development will be watched with interest by the many real estate buyers of Wilmington.

MASONS IMPROVE TEMPLE

Lodge Rooms are Being Beautified—Will Purchase Organ

Recently a contract was awarded to Mr. Chas. H. Pier-Giavina, of Washington, D. C., to make repairs and beautify the blue lodge and chapter rooms of the Masonic Temple, and the work is well under way and will be completed within the next two months. In connection wih the improvement of the lodge rooms, an effort is being made to raise among the craft a sufficient sum for the installation of a pipe organ, which will be for the use of all lodges meeting there. Mr. A. S. Holden, secretary of the Masonic Temple Pipe Organ Fund Committee, has sent a letter to all members asking them to have a share in the purchase of the organ, which will cost approximately $2,500. It is believed that the amount will be raised with little effort.

Is Remarkably Active

The following excerpt from a Saratoga, N. Y., paper relative to the recent college men's reunion, will be of interest here: "One of the most interesting members of the association present at the reunion is Walker Meares, a graduate of the University of North Carolina with the class of 1853. Mr. Meares is one of the oldest living graduates of the University, and is over 80 years of age. Notwithstanding the latter fact, however, Mr. Meares held down the position of left field in today's ball game with an alacrity that eclipsed many a player in the under graduate nine. His home is in Wilmington, N. C."

ODD FELLOWS MEET TODAY

65th Annual Session of Grand Encampment Begins at Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, Tonight —Many Delegates

In the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, tonight at 8:30 o'clock, will be called to order the 65th annual session of the Grand Encampment, Order of Odd Fellows of North Carolina, the meetings to continue through Wednesday evening. Mr. R. P. Clingman, of Winston-Salem, Grand Patriarch, will preside and upwards of 100 delegates from different parts of the State are expected to be in attendance. Mr. R. H. Ramsey, of Charlotte, Grand Scribe, and Mr. R. M. Murray, arrived yesterday, while Mr. Clingman, along with many others, was expected last night. The trains today will bring the bulk of the delegates, however.

After calling the session to order tonight Grand Patriarch Clingman will introduce Wm. L. Smith, Esq., a member of the Wilmington bar and ardent Odd Fellow, who will deliver the address of welcome in his usual pleasing style. Grand Patriarch Clingman is expected to respond to the address of welcome. This part of the meeting will be open to the public, but following the addresses the Grand Encampment will convene in secret session for the transaction of business matters. The night business session is expected to be brief, consisting of appointment of committees, classifying of the work to be done, etc.

Wednesday there will be two sessions and probably three. The last session will either be held Wednesday afternoon or Wednesday evening.

While no elaborate programme of entertainment has been provided by the local committee, due to the fact that the Encampment will be busy nearly all of the time with business matters, yet some time will be given to social affairs, chief among which will be a trip over the suburban and city lines of the Tidewater Power Company on Wednesday afternoon.

The local committee on arrangements is composed of Wm. L. Smith, chairman; John E. Wood, secretary; M. W. Jacobi, A. T. Parker, W. G. T. Keen, W. H. Yopp, J. W. Overby, L. L. Boon and J. T. King.

GOVERNOR KITCHIN TO SPEAK

Aspirant for Senatorial Toga Will Address Wilmington Audience on Thursday Night, August 20 —In Pender Also

Governor W. W. Kitchin will speak in this city in behalf of his Senatorial candidacy Thursday night, August 29th, according to announcement which has just been made. He will speak in Pender county on that day and will arrive here in time to speak that evening.

Governor Kitchin has a large following in New Hanover and this, in addition to his reputation of being one of the best known orators in the South, will insure him a large audience. The Governor spoke in Wilmington at the High School commencement exercises last Spring, but he did not touch on politics on that occasion. His address is pleasantly remembered by all who heard it.

The Governor has already delivered a number of speeches in his Senatorial campaign and has been heard by large crowds everywhere. At Madison last Friday afternoon he was heard by 800 people and at Reidsville the same night he addressed an audience of 1,500.

The speeches that have been delivered by the Governor in the present campaign have attracted considerable attention throughout the State and his friends and admirers in Wilmington will welcome the opportunity of hearing his arguments at first hand.

As yet no other action has been taken beyond fixing the date for the speech, but it is expected that the Governor's friends will arrange to entertain him while he is in the city.

Annual Band Bazaar

The annual band bazaar of the Cape Fear Independent Band will be held tomorrow night, beginning at 8 o'clock at the hall at Fifth and Castle streets, and the members and their friends are looking forward to a most enjoyable evening. In addition to an attractive musical programme, there will be the usual booths, including the country store, the fish pond, and fortune telling booth. The hall will be decorated for the occasion and delicious refreshments will be served free of charge. The booths will be waited on by young ladies who have kindly consented to assist the organization.

INTEREST IN MOTOR BOATING

Mr. Geo. R. King Visits Wilmington and Ponts Out Advantages of North Carolina Waters for Cruising.

The motor boating interest of the country seems not to be aware of the fact that North Carolina waters afford the finest cruising grounds on the South Atlantic coast with countless delightful cruises available in historic and romantic territory. "This is the opinion of Mr. George R. King, representing Southern Motor Boat, of Jacksonville and New Orleans, who is traversing the Atlantic coast this Summer investigating the advantages offered by various Southern cities for Winter cruising. He arrived yesterday.

"Every winter", continued Mr. King, "a large fleet of cruising motor yachts goes southward and spends the entire Winter in Florida waters. Because these motor yachtsmen are ignorant of the attractions of the inland waters between New York and Florida they hasten along the coast as fast as possible. Then in Spring they hurry back over the same route. The object of my mission is to begin to lay the foundation for a series of articles that will show the boating world the beauties and historic spots of the Southern waterfront. It is my firm belief that if the yachting interest really knew what North Carolina offers every Winter cruising party would plan to spend several weeks in this section on each leg of the Winter cruises."

Mr. King said he left New Orleans several months ago and has since visited every town on the Gulf and South Atlantic coasts up to this point and from here will continue his investigations until he reaches Baltimore. He has seen this Summer more motor boats and been in more picturesque and historic spots than any man in the country. "The motor boats is growing in popularity even faster than the automibile right now," say Mr. King, "and the same motor improvements that have made the touring motor car a practicable vehicle for long cross-country journeys have made the cruising motor boat the heaviest yielder of real pleasure in the entire range of recretion devices. The touring motorist dreams of coming government boulevards threading the country and affording him an easy way wherever he may wish to go, but it will be many dreary years before he gets them. On the other hand the motor boatman has now a practically continuous government-maintained cruising highway between the North and the South, and along its extent are to be found the spots where our American history really began. The Coast Inland Waterway has never had the benefit of much publicity, but nevertheless there were a couple of thousand cruising motor boats in Florida waters last Winter most of which came down this way, and this fleet increases in size rapidly each season. It is pudposed to do for the motor boat what numerous automobile papers rave done for the motor car, show desirable cruises in picturesque and historic territory, lay out short week-end runs around each important southern coast city, illustrate lavishly and wonderfuly beautiful southern water fronts and boost the cruising game until Southern waters in the late Fall, Winter and early Spring are full of motor boats of all sizes from all over the country."

"The big houseboat in which a wealthy yachtsman can spend his Winters and play host to large parties is making great inroads on the real yachting interest. It makes a strong appeal to the landsmen who loves the water, but who is not a real yachtsman. There were many fine houseboats in Florida last season, all motor driven and the acme of luxury. They are commodious and comfortable, real floating palacess or rather homes. Jacksonville is the only Southern city which has gone in for houseboating, but this is largely due to the fact that there are always some fine eastern boats for sale at the end of the season and local people have picked up some great bargains. There are at least a dozen houseboats in the Jacksonville fleet along with several hundred motor boats of various sizes.

"I am getting in touch with the motor boat interests in Wilmington and propose to arrange for a series of pictorial cruising in this territory and if possible for charts of neighboring waters. This work will be of much benefit, and really if the civic bodies of that city would take up the work it would return excellent dividends in the way of increased travel and prestige. The appeal of the motor boat, the most modern vehicle of water travel is drawing more and more people into the game each year and Wilmington will make no mistake to play to this interest as strongly as possible."

Drove Through Country.

Making the trip through the country in an automobile, a party of five young men from Weldon arrived in the city yesterday. They reported that the roads from Weldon are good, as far as Warsaw, but from that point to this city, the roads are rather poor for automobiling. The young men, who are Messrs. P. C. and C. W. Gregory, H. L. Roebuck, R. V. Randolph and F. C. Rogers, are on a business prospecting tour. They may extend their tour into South Carolina, or may return to their home from here.

With Mr. Brooks at the head of the new enterprise the company was soon organized and a charter granted, the organization having been perfected yesterday with the above well-known business men in charge. The company has offices and plant at No. 14 Market street where it is now well equipped with all necessary machinery, bottles, crates etc., for doing a very large business, filling promptly and satisfactorily all orders both in and out of the city. As Pepsi-Cola is well-known throughout the country, it is expected that the business in this territory will be very largely extended. AT WORK ON REPORT

Capt. T. D. Meares Preparing Statement of Street Money Expenditures

Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, who returned to the city Sunday after spending two weeks vacation in the West, has resumed his duties, which were ably looked after during his absence by Councilman M. G. Tiencken, in charge of the Department of Accounts and Finance, and Assistant City Clerk and Treasurer C. H. White.

Capt. Meares has resumed the work of preparing the detailed report of expenditures of street bond money, which was requested some time ago by Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, and Mr. R. A. Parsley. It was Mr. Parsley who criticised the method of book-keeping in the office of the city clerk and treasurer, and who was invited by Councilman Tiencken to show the city how its system could be improved. Mr. Parsley accepted the invitation, but his visit was postponed at the request of Councilman Tiencken until the return of Capt. Meares.

It is presumed that Councilman Tiencken will renew his invitation now that the clerk and treasurer has returned.

Juniors Take the First

The Juniors took the first game of indoor baseball in the championship series between the Juniors and the Seniors at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night by a score of 4 to 3. So closely contested was the game that it took 10 innings to settle it, the winning run being made by Legwin in the 10th, scoring on a sacrifice fly. The features of the game was the pitching of Fillyaw for the Seniors, and Morrison for the Juniors, both pitching winning ball. The final result was due to errors rather than poor pitching. King for the Seniors, tied the score in the eighth by a steal home and thus necessitated the extra inning. A second game will be played later. Batteries for the Juniors: Morrison and Davis; for the Seniors, Fillyaw and King.

Two Monster Snakes.

While in the woods near Black Swamp, east of the city, Sunday, Mr. James Prease, of the plumbing firm of Prease & Prease, killed two very large rattlesnakes. Mr. Prease almost stepped on one of the reptiles, but was warned by the sank's rattling. He jumped just as the snake struck at him. He then secured a stick and killed both reptiles. Each snake was over five feet long and each had 12 rattles. They were on exhibition at the Prease offices on Market street yesterday.

Recovered Watch Through Ad.

Mr. R. H. Hines reported to the police station last Friday evening that he had lost a valuable gold watch. The officers advised him to advertise for it and accordingly Mr. Hines had an advertisement in Saturday's issue of The Star. The watch was returned to Mr. Hines Saturday by a white boy who told him that he found the timepiece and saw the advertisement in the paper.

MISS MAMIE LIVELY BRIDE OF CAPT EDGAR L. HINTON.

Stealing a march on their many friends at the beach and in the city, Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, manager of the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, and Miss Mamie E. Lively, of Birmingham, Ala., came quietly to the city yesterday afternon and were married at the rectory of St. James' Episcopal church at 5 o'clock, Rev. Claudius A. Smith, rector of Christ's Episcopal church of Elizabeth City, who is supplying the pulpit at St. James in the absence of Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, performing the ceremony. The wedding was witnessed only by Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Hinton and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. F. Leitner, who came up from the beach with the bride and groom.

Many of the friends of the bride and groom have been expecting their marriage immediately following the close of the season at Wrightsville Beach, but none of them looked for the interesting event sooner than that and they were completely taken by surprise. Even the clerks and guests at the Seashore Hotel could hardly believe the news last evening.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hinton returned to the Seashore Hotel, where they will remain until the close of the season October 1st. They will then take an extended bridal tour, though they have not as yet announced where they will go.

Captain Hinton is one of the best known hotel men in the North Carolina and has been the manager and the principal stockholder of the Seashore for a number of years. For the past three seasons Miss Lively, who is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Lively, of Birmingham, Ala., and a most charming woman, has been secretary to Capt. Hinton, at the hotel. Both are known to a host of friends in Wilmington and at the beach, and also to hundreds of the residents of other States who regularly visit the beach each Summer. One and all, these friends will join in wishing them every measure of success and happiness in their married life.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS TODAY.

Will Open Bids for Improving Street and Bridge—Incinerator.

City Council will hold a special meeting at noon today, the purpose being to open bids for the improvement of Chestnut street, between Front and Second, with asphalt blocks, and to receive proposals for repairing the bridge over the railroad tracks at Fifth street, which was closed by order of Council a few days ago. It is expected that both contracts will be awarded today.

The matter of buying an incinerator for the destruction of refuse and carrion of the city and carrion of the county will also be considered by Council today, and it is hoped that the contract for the much needed utility will be given at this time. The county has agreed to pay one-fifth of the cost of the installation and maintenance of such a plant. The County Board of Health passed a resolution some weeks ago which in effect gives the city until October 1st to begin the erection of such a plant. It is understod that this resolution will be rigidly enforced. Councilman B. C. Moore, who recently inspected incinerators in Portsmouth, Norfolk and Richmond, stated that he found that in each of those cities, the incinerator had been installed only after the municipality had been compelled to do so by the boards of health. In other words, the condition of those cities was similar to what it is in Wilmington. The officials of those towns now realze what an advanced step was taken when incinerators were purchased and installed and could not be persuaded to go back to the old way of burying the refuse and carrion.

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results to loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. It's folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at R. R. Bellamy.

WILSON EXPLAINS.

Talks About His Reference to New Progressive Party.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 19.—Governor Woodrow Wilson said today he had received many telegrams asking him to explain his reference in his spech last Saturday in which he said: "The force behind the new party recently formed, the so-called Progressive party, was one of discontent with the regular parties." Governor Wilson's attention was called also to a statement by Colonel Roosevelt interpreting the reference as an endorsement of the third party. The Governor declared that the force of discontent to which he referred prevailed before the Baltimore convention when the progressive wings were seeking to control their respective parties. He further explained his attitude in a statement issued today in which he said: "The progressive element in the Republican Party tried to get control of it and failed. The progressive element in the Democratic party tried to get control of it and overwhelmingly succeeded. So that is obvious to the whole country that the Democratic party is free to serve all the purposes of the people. The Democratic party has thus become a free organized instrumentality through which programmes of reform can be carried out."

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty-Seekers

W. C. D. says: "My elbows are so thick-skinned, goosepimply and muddy I can't wear short sleeves. How can this condition be overcome?" Don't use elbows as props. The treatment recommended to Minnie L. will make your elbows quite presentable.

Ellen B. asks: "What should I do for deep lines under my eyes and across my forehead?" Such lines, and all wrinkles are best obliterated by bathing affected portions in a good astringent and tonic lotion, which strengthens and draws in the relaxated tissue. Here's a reliable formula; 1 ounce powdered saxolite, 1-2 pint witch hazel; mix and use daily until entirely relieved.

Minnie L: The undue redness, as well as the pimples may easily be removed by using ordinary mercolized wax. Apply nightly like cold cream and erase mornings with warm water. Soon you'll have a beautifully white, clear, soft and velvety complexion. Mercolized wax, sold by all druggists, is better than cosmetics for any complexion trouble. One ounce suffices for most conditions—Woman's Realm.

GAIN FOLLOWS EARLY BREAK

October Delivery Reached New Low Ground for the Movement In the Early Trading—Close at Small Advance

New York, August 19.—An early break in today's cotton market carried October delivery into new low ground for the movement, but prices later rallied quite sharply and the close was steady at a net advance of from 6 to 8 points.

The opening was barely steady at a decline of 1 to 5 points and active months soon sold 13 to 13 points net lower under a renewal of Saturday's selling movement, which had the encouragement of good weather over the greater part of the South, bearish private crop advices and reports that the English market had been depressed by free offerings of actual. The rapidly increasing new crop movement in the Southwest was reflected by the big Galveston estimate for tomorrow's receipts and Texas advices indicating that Galveston's receipts for the month of August would approximate 200,0000 bales, together with claims that the basis was becoming easier, promoted selling on the decline. Around 11.05 for October, however, the market found good support, and while there was little change in the general character in the news, prices rallied about 25 points from the lowest during the early report that spinners were buying undoubtedly added to the disposition of shorts to cover and there was an active demand from some of the big uptown and Wall Street operators. Offerings increased around 11.30 for October, leading to some irregularity in the late trading, but last prices were within 3 or 4 points of the best. Receipts, 6,477 bales, against 3,179 bales last week and 12,799 last year; at New Orleans, 301, against 316 last year; at Galveston, 5,959 bales, against 11,05. last year, and at Houston, 15,904 against 22,048 last year.

Spot closed quiet. Middling uplands, 11.80; middling gulf, 12.05; sales, 002 bales.

Futures closed steady.

STOCK OPERATIONS NARROW

Midsummer Dullness Most Characteristic Feature of Yesterday's Market—Tone Was Irregular to Dull.

New York, Aug. 19.—Midsummer dullness was the most characteristic feature of today's narrow and uninteresting operations in the stock market. The tone varied from irregular to heavy, the latter resulting mainly from early selling of the anthracite shares, which caused sympathetic declines in other active lists.

Liquidation of the coalers was accompanied by rumors that the Inter-State Commerce Commission would soon again direct its energies against the coal-carrying railroads, but nothing in confirmation of this materialized in the course of the day.

Canadian Pacific Railway made very substantial recovery from the weakness exhibited in the latter part of last week, with concurrent strength in Soo, one of its allied roads.

Best quotations were made in the last hour when extensive dealings in Steel caused an advance in that stock, with a general stiffening of prices elsewhere. The demand for steel shares, which seemed to be based upon legislative developments at Washington, was met by offerings of other stocks and soon resulted in a general reversal, with an unsettled close.

Bonds were irregular, with a sharp decline in Wabash 4s. Total sales, par value, amounted to $1,300,000. United States government bonds unchanged on call. Total sales, 314,500 shares.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, Aug. 19.—Both the primary and secondary cotton goods markets were quiet during the day. Prices were firmly maintained on finished goods, but slight recessions were noted in the prices paid for some small lots of gray goods. Wide worsted dress goods were opened by the American Woolen Company for Spring, 1913, delivery. The prices named showed advances of from 5 to 10 cents a yard in a number of cases. In notable instances, however, well known serges were held at the prices named for the Fall, 1912, season.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

FIRM FOUNDATION

Nothing Can Undermine It In Wilmington

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Wilmington residents, expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here.

L. H. Partin, 505 Chesnut street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very pleased to confirm the public statement I gave in February, 1908, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used this remedy occasionally since then and it has always brought the best of results. (Statement given December 26th, 1910).

The endorsement referred to by Mr. Partin was in substance as follows: "My back was weak and lame and I had acute pains across my loins. The secretions from my kidneys were highly colored and filled with sediment and caused me much distress when being voided. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I obtained a box from Bellamy's drug store and began their use according to directions. They acted just as represented and drove away all the symptoms of my complaint."

the majority, should be free from all connection with "speculative enterprises and get-rich-quick schemes."

"It is useless," the majority added, "to frame regulations for the government of employes, many of whom work for low salaries, and permit those in high position to despise all restraint. This is particularly true when the offense is to capitalize official position and collect dividends from official opportunity. Your committee has no authority to deal further with this matter. It calls the particular attention of Secretary Wilson to the record."

The commitee conclusions are:

The Department—Majority report called the department vascillating and lacking conception of the vast investment of millions of dollars in undertaking the reclamation of the everglades. Said it constantly subordinated the inquiry to other work in which members of Congress were particularly interested and finally abandoned it after an expenditure of $11,107 without definite results. Its accounting system deficient and its discipline lacking. The minority upheld the department.

Secretary Wilson—Falsely credited with authorship of the circular letter to which real estate promoters first objected because of its cautionary nature. Promptly suppressed it and refused publication of revised bulletin excerpts as a report on the everglades. Minority reported that he did not abuse his legal discretion.

Asistant Secretary Hays—Arraingned by majority. Minority called the criticism of Hays unfair and unwarranted; that his interest in the possible sale of a North Carolina lake bed to Leigh Hunt and others was due to his well-known public interest in the development of community country life.

Drainage Engineer Wright—Majority said he "accepted fees and commissions whenever offered."

Minority reported that no evidence was established that any financial statement indicating great gains from the Mattamusgeet, N. C., project were exhibited by Wright to Hays. Financial statement reaching committee was "faulty and ridiculous and would have discredited the scheme at once."

Dr. C. G. Elliott, chief of drainage, and Assistant Drainage Engineer Morehouse—Majority report stated that they admitted making an arrangement which the majority regarded as in violation of the law and of sound public policy, but that there was no profit intended in it and the department had disciplined them too severely. The minority agreed as to the over-discipling, but added that the committee had no oversight of the department's discipline and that if such oversight were a fixed institution the Secretaries of Agriculture and their subordinates would become abject slaves to "red tape."

THE NAVAL PROGRAMME.

One Battleship and Eight Submarines Agreed Upon.

Washington, August 19.—One battleship to cost $7,425,0000, without armor or armament, and not to exceed $15,000,000 when completed, eight submarines, costing $4,480,000, and a fleet of torpedo boats, soldier and machine ships, constitute the building programme for the navy, approved today by the Senate, and which probably will be adopted without change by the House.

The House and Senate conferees on the Naval bill met early today and adjusted in a few minutes the fight between the two houses over battleships and submarines. The Senate yielded to the demand of the House for one battleship instead of two, but secured in exchange the full fleet of eight submarines, instead of the four proposed by the House.

The conference report was brought into the Senate and adopted without opposition. Senator Thornton, Democrat, declared the Senate conferees should have adhered to their demand for two battleships.

DR. SUN REPORTED KILLED.

Great Excitement in Chinatown Caused by Rumors.

San Francisco, Cal., August 19.—Rumors that Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first provisional President of China, had been assassinated in Peking today by the soldiers of President Yuan Shi Kai, caused great excitement in Chinatown tonight. The rumors could be traced to no authentic source, but varying accounts of the alleged assassination were posted on bulletin boards throughout the Chinese quarter.

At the offices of the Chinese consul general and the two Chinese daily newspapers, no news of an attack upon Dr. Sun had been received, and the report of his death was given little credence. Cablegrams were dispatched to Peking, however, inquiring as to the safety of the former revolutionary leader.

According to the rumors placarded in Chinatown, Dr. Sun had left Shanghai for Peking yesterday to undertake to save the republic from a threatened renewal of hostilities as the result of the execution of General Chang Chen Wu and Aeng Wei.

MISSING LINK IS BEHIND THE BARS

man had a long conference with the witness behind stateroom doors and obtained from him, he said, tonight a story which materially strengthened his evidence against Becker and other prisoners, seven in all, whom he expects the grand jury will indict tomorrow.

"He has corroborated everything in Jack Rose's story that Rosesaid he would," said Mr. Whitman tonight. Just what the details were Mr. Whitman refused to say, intimating that he wished to keep them for the grand jury. How the murder crew was collected, who they were, Becker's alleged orders "to get" Rosenthal, Rose's alleged relations with Becker as a graft collector, how Schepps acted as a go-between for Rose and Becker while Rose was in hiding at the home of Harry Pollock, are points in Rose's story which Schepps, his close "pal" in underworld life, should substantiate in view of the District Attorney's statement.

As to who was the paymaster of the murder crew, however, Schepps, as far as could be learned tonight, does not fully bear out Rose. The latter said that Schepps paid the "blood money." Schepps, while admitting that he was present when the $1,000 was turned over to "Gyp, The Blood" and the three other alleged members of the "murder crew," says, it was learned, that he is not sure whether it was he or Rose who actually passed the money.

Schepps, Mr. Whitman said tonight, wanted to go to jail to avoid the police and had told him that he feared an unfair "third degree" at police headquarters. Deputy Commissioner Dougherty, he added, knew that Schepps was a people's witness because he had been told so. William Shapiro, driver of the "murder car," was today given his last day of grace to tell a truthful story to the District Attorney and face indictment. It was learned tonight.

Commissioner Waldo today summoned 35 police lieutenants to headquarters and interviewed each separately. It is said on good authority that the commission is contemplating a "shake up" among lieutenants in charge of certain districts where gambling and disorderly resorts have not been suppressed.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES

American Federation Maps Out Programme Against Forces of Evil

Louisville, Ky., August 19.—Delegates to the 11th annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies today began the mapping out of the year's programme against the forces of evil which in the words of several speakers "menace the republic."

Emphasis was placed in the annual address of President Feenery, of Brooklyn, and the report of Secretary Anthony Matre, of St. Louis, upon the social service programme of the federate societies which are confronting socialistic teachings with aggressive promulgations of the "position of the Church on the great social questions of the day."

Tonight's session was given over to consideration of capital and labor. Socialistic principles of the Industrial Workers of the World were denounced and the position of the American Federation of Labor upheld. "The American Federation of Labor," President Feenery quoted from President Hamilton, of Tuft's College stands for America and not for Socialism."

In this connection President Feenery referred to the 200,000 graduates annually sent out from the parochial schools, imbued with the spirit of patriotism and loyalty.

He looked forward to the time when the State would recognize thos service of the Catholics, who expend $40,000,000 annually in education of their children and at the same time are taxed $60,000,000 additional for maintenance of public schools."

VOTE-SELLING TRIAL BEGUN

Large Number of Indicted Men Have Compromised Their Cases

Bristol, Tenn., August 19.—Denying a motion to certify the election bribery indictments for trial before justices of the peace, Judge H. A. W. Skeen today began the trial at Jonesville, Va., of the men indicted on the charges of selling their votes, as a result of the work of the special grand jury last December. A number of the men have accepted Judge Skeen's proposition to compromise their cases and have entered pleas of guilty. They will be given the minimum fine and one year in which to pay it.

Several cases were disposed of today, and the trials will continue. It is believed that many more of those indicted will plead guilty and accept the minimum fine. Nearly 200 indictments have been made and others may follow when another special grand jury is empanelled.

MOB LYNCHES NEGRO.

Overpowers Officers, Batters Down Jail and Hangs Him to Pole.

Fort Smith, Ark., Aug 19.—Monroe Franklin, a negro charged with having criminaly assaulted a white woman, was taken from jail at Russellville, Ark., tonight and hanged to a telephone pole. About 200 men made up the mob which quickly overpowered the sheriff and the deputy constable, battered down the jail door and dragged Franklin to the telephone pole. Not a shot was fired.

THAT TERRIBLE ITCHING.

AMERICAN OUTLAW KILLED IN AFRICA

want you to witness what I say, Doctor. Captain Ford, I am a dying man, so I would not lie about anything. This was my show and all my work. I am afraid I have brought you into trouble Doctor.

"Well, I had my good times, as well as bad. I can't stand religious people. If you have religions just live up to them."

A noise in his throat interrupted the old man's words.

"Say did you hear that?" he exclaimed. "That's the death rattle. I've heard that too many times to make any mistake." This prediction proved correct for these were his last words.

Throughout his talk with Captain Fox, Rogers shielded his white companion and did not reveal his identity. Captain Fox's report also is singularly silent on this point as he says he did not know the doctor. It is thought likely, however, that this was done to protect the man.

DOPE FOR NEGROES

Raleigh Will Investigate—Bank Building Being Vacated

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 19.—At a conference today of Mayor James I. Johnson and Chief of Police J. P. Stell much consideration was given the problem of the steady increase of the use of cocaine as "dope" among the lower classes of negroes in Raleigh. They agreed that the "habit" has only gotten a serious foothold here within the past year, and Chief of Police Stell says that there was more disorder and crime directly traceable to cocaine during Saturday and Sunday nights just passed than for any similar period in the past. It is probable that some steps will be taken speedily to check the evil through getting up with and punishing or running out the dealers who are selling the dope to the negroes.

Will Hinton, colored, was probably fatally cut Sunday night by Blake Brinkley, who also slashed another negro less seriously in the same row. The police say that the fight was one of numerous fights of late by negroes crazed by the use of cocaine.

The present five-story Citizens' National Bank building, corner Fayetteville and Martin streets, is being vacated by tenants just now preparatory for the building to be torn down to give place to the 12-story bank and office building that the bank will erect forthwith. The contractors are Boyle-Roberson Construction Co., of Washington, D. C.

The lifeless body of Mary Rochene, a negro about 25 years old, was found this forenoon in the grass on a vacant lot in Boylan Heights, a Raleigh suburb. She was shot in the left side and seemed to have been dead for several hours. In fact, residents of the neighborhood say they heard a pistol shot in that direction about midnight. A man's cap was found close by the body. It is known to belong to a negro who has been passing as "Harry" without any sir name. He has not been located today. He was seen with the woman about 6 o'clock last night. An autopsy and inquest were held this afternoon.

CALLS ON MARSHALL.

Judge Parker will Deliver Notification Speech Today.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19.—Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, who tomorrow is to notify formally Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of his nomination for Vice-President of the United States on the Democratic ticket, arrived here today and called at the Indiana executives office. The call was short and afterwards, it was said, politics was not mentioned.

"I have not done a thing toward an address yet," said Judge Parker, when asked if he had a copy of his speech in advance. "I won't even be able to outline what I will say until I see what sort of a gathering we are going to have at the notification ceremonies."

Colonel John I. Martin sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic National Committee and John C. Mills, of Asheville N. C., member of the Notification committee, were with the New York jurist when he called on Governor Marshall. Indiana Democratic leaders say they expect at least half the members of the Notificatio n Committee would be here. William J. McAdoo of New York, who is acting chairman of the National Committee during the illness of Chairman McCombs, is expected to reach here early tomorrow.
